Weather Key Points

Regional Operations Center

Western Region

Sunday, October 23

- Breezy north to northeast winds gusting up to 35 mph will bring elevated fire weather conditions to the Sacramento Valley, East Bay, and interior North Bay areas through early Sunday evening
- Additional elevated fire weather conditions will also develop across the southern California mountains as well as southern Santa Barbara County, the Santa Clarita and San Fernando Valleys and eastern Ventura County and much of Los Angeles County Sunday night and Monday as north to northeast winds gust 35 to locally 50 mph
- Some light rain and high elevation snow (mainly above 8,500 feet) will return to far northern California Monday, continuing at times through early Wednesday. Some precipitation could also develop over the Sierra, though confidence remains low.
  - Any precipitation amounts will be light, mainly less than one-quarter inch
  - No widespread or significant impacts are currently expected with this precipitation
- Some gusty offshore winds could redevelop by late week across the Sacramento Valley and southern California, though critical fire weather conditions are not expected at this time

COVID-19 SUMMARY

Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19)

On 03/02/20 at 0700 hours, the Cal OES State Operations Center (SOC) activated at Level 1 in support of the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) Medical Health Coordination Center's (MHCC) statewide response to COVID-19. Cal OES will continue to provide resource coordination for the COVID-19 event, as well as situation status reporting and advance planning across multiple areas.

SMARTER Plan

On 10/17/22, Governor Newsom unveiled the "California Smarter Plan Updates October 2022". The plan emphasizes continued readiness, awareness and flexibility and helps ensure California can maintain its focus on communities that continue to be disproportionately impacted and stay prepared to swiftly and effectively respond to emerging COVID-19 variants and changing conditions. Governor Newsom is set to lift the State of Emergency in early 2023, and this update provides information on California's progress to date and how we move forward.
